JUDGMENT

Counsel on both sides submit that the petitioners/judgment debtors have paid the entire amount due to the respondent/decree holder, who is the purchaser of the property in auction, including the expenses incurred for stamp papers. In the result, the respondent is directed to re-convey the property purchased by them in sale to the petitioners at the expense of the petitioners themselves. The amount, if any, due to the decree holder deposited before the execution court can be withdrawn by them, after re-conveying the property in favour of the petitioners.

With the above directions, this writ petition is closed.
